

MTN Group appoints new CEO for South Africa

MTN Group announced the appointment of Mteto Nyati as MTN SA CEO, effective 13 July 2015. A seasoned ICT executive and business leader, Nyati joined MTN as group chief enterprise officer in October last year.

In his role as group chief enterprise officer, Nyati has been responsible for leveraging the group's integrated ICT offerings and leading the group-wide enterprise and ICT strategy to enhance MTN's position in the enterprise segment. Nyati succeeds Ahmad Farroukh, who resigned earlier this month.
