

Cavendish Square goes to the races

As the official shopping centre partner to the J&B Met, Cavendish Square brought a variety of events and entertainment to the J&B Met. This included to fashiontainment numbers on the main stage - the Centre's Angels and Demons and Superheroes blended fashions from the centre with unique dance routines, all themed around the theme for the J&B Met this year - MADE TO FLY.

The centre also hosted the Cavendish Square J&B Met Celebrity Fashion Challenge on the Lifestyle Village stage which was won by Tanya Nefdt from ENCA.

And, the winner of the Cavendish Square J&B Met Student Challenge, went on to compete in the J&B Met Most Elegant Couple Competition and eventually won the entire competition, competing against some more established designers.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>