Microsoft, Rwanda Ministry of Education partner to reduce software costs

With the aim of reducing software costs to improve the quality of education in primary and secondary schools, Microsoft and the Rwanda Ministry of Education have joined forces, reports Ventures Africa.

For more:

- Ventures Africa: Microsoft To Reduce Software Cost For Rwanda Educational Sector... According to the report, 'Partners in Learning' (Microsoft's education initiative) will not only help to ease the availability of Microsoft program licenses to allow brand updates for new programs at low costs, but will also allow the Ministry to use Microsoft programs at low prices on 3,000 computers.

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com