

SAITEX business briefing conference

SAITEX (The Southern African International Trade Exhibition) is offering a half-day workshop that is a business briefing for suppliers of goods and services looking to enter the southern and eastern African markets, as well as interested investors for these markets. The briefing takes place on 27 July 2010 at the Gallagher Convention Centre, Midrand.

Speakers include the high commissioners, or their representatives to South Africa of Botswana, Kenya, Mozambique, Uganda, Malawi and Zimbabwe, and a management consultant from Mauritius to highlight upcoming projects in the seven key selected African markets and identify specific supply opportunities in such fields as IT, telecommunications, construction, property, computers and food supply.

Delegates can network with potential clients as well as cement relationships with existing clients and visit the co-located SAITEX exhibition. For tickets at R1500 excl VAT, email Heather Hook at heather@fairconsultants.com.
