

Claire Phillips and Loyiso Bala to play the Artscape

Multi- faceted award winning performers Claire Phillips and Loyiso Bala will be playing at Cape Town's Artscape Theatre on 10 November, 2013.

Phillips's first offering in 2006, "Say My Name", put her firmly in the spotlights as an artist to be reckoned with. A year later the album went on to win a Best R&B/Soul Album Category, making her the first South African to win this award with a debut album. Her second album, "By Request", has been climbing the charts and keeping her on the road touring. Phillips is known for her eclectic style and her smooth vocals.

Loyiso Bala has won multiple awards ranging from Best R&B album of 2007 at the Metro FM Awards, five SAMAs, three Metro FM awards, Best R&B and Best Producer at the SAMA awards 2008 and was nominated for best song of 2009 and 2010 at the SAMAs for Blow Your Mind and Maybe, respectively. He was also nominated at the MTV awards alongside Alicia Keys, Rihanna, Akon and P Square and is known for his style awards for You Magazine and GQ's most stylish male in the country.

Tickets on sale on Computicket priced from R150. Group Bookings contact +27 (0)79 910 8649

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>