Now, the company has unveiled another new feature in the form of Stickers.

Twitter's implementation of Stickers lets you simply place one of hundreds of stickers onto your photo, being a "fun new way to add creativity" to your pictures, the service said.

"Soon, you can browse our rotating sets of stickers to join in on real-time conversations, and select from the library of hundreds of accessories, emoji, and props to make your photos more fun. Use them to share what you're doing or how you're feeling, to show support for a cause, or to just add some flair," the service elaborated...
