

This weekend TEDxCapeTownWomen features nine top speakers

On Saturday, 29 October 2016, TEDxCapeTownWomen will host their third annual event at Iziko South African Museum, Whale Well from 4pm - 8.30pm.

The event, themed "Lixesha - It is Time" includes nine speakers and the opportunity to engage with a community of innovators and change-makers.

It is one of 325 TEDxWomen events taking place during 27-28 October 2016 in over 60 countries. This year TEDxCapeTownWomen aims to bring the same quality of content.

Speakers

- Dr Sindiwe Magona | Poverty is not invincible
- Dr Imogen Wright | Evolution: it's coming for us, and we'd better be ready
- Tiffany Mugo and Siphumeze Khundayi HOLAA | Historic Journeys through Coochie conversations
- Eve Annecke | Becoming Invisible
- Siya "Umlilo" Ngcobo | Technology resuscitates art
- Bongeka Masango, Thembekile Mahlaba and Nwabisa Mda Pap Culture | From (Wo)man to Womxn

Tickets

Early bird ticket bundle: R220 (First 80 tickets gain access to the TEDWomen Livestream on Thursday 27 Oct 2016). Standard ticket is R220 and a student ticket is R180. For more information, email Lauren Uppink Calderwood at lauren@tedxcapetown.org or call +27 (0) 83 301 1925.