

Vodacom SA MD announces resignation

Sipho Maseko, currently MD of Vodacom SA and chief operating officer of the Vodacom Group (VOD), has announced on Wednesday, 13 June 2012, that he has decided to leave the group to pursue other interests.

Maseko, who joined Vodacom in September 2011, will also be stepping down from all his directorships of the group's companies with immediate effect.

Vodacom Group chairman, Peter Moyo, said: "Sipho has made a positive contribution to Vodacom during his time with the Group, providing valuable external perspective to our strategy discussions. On behalf of the entire Group, I wish Sipho the best of luck for the future."

Maseko said: "I wish to thank the Board, shareholders and all my colleagues at Vodacom for a wonderful opportunity in the last few months. My stay here has been stimulating and I've learned a lot. I wish the company all the best for the future".

A further announcement will be made in due course, the group said.
