

Early-bird tickets on sale for Rock the River

Early-bird tickets are on sale for Rock the River 2012 for R225 for a full weekend pass. The festival will showcase an impressive range of artists and entertainers to usher in the new year, and will take place between 28 December, 2012, and 1 January 2013.

Festival-goers can look forward to:

- Five days of festival madness spread across three live music stages and one electronic stage, all kitted out with state-of-the-art sound and lighting rigs
- More than 200 live acts, including bands, comedians and DJs
- A large food market, braai areas and cheap drink specials
- Various entertainment areas
- Heart Break Hotel luxury camping option

If you are keen to play the festival this year, general artist submissions are now open. Apply for a spot at:
