

HWB Communications appoints new CEO

HWB Communications, a leading public relations, media, and communications agency based in Cape Town, has appointed Lisa Devi as chief executive officer. She will be responsible for directing the efforts of the communications team and coordinating at strategic and tactical levels with other enterprise departments within organisations.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>