

Citwa to replace Du Plessis in Algoa FM's early morning slot

Siyabonga Citwa will be taking over Algoa FM's early morning slot (before the Daron Mann Breakfast) as Lance du Plessis will be moving on to present the afternoon drive show on the Garden Route following Jacques Arendt's resignation. Citwa is currently studying radio production and presenting at RAPP Studios in Newton Park.

Citwa spent two years studying journalism and media studies at Rhodes University before spending a year at NMMU to continue his media studies.
