

Picnic concert with Emo Adams at the Taalmonument

Emo Adams will be performing live at the Taalmonument on 9 February 2013.

Emo Adams and his band are to perform as part of the Tuinteater Picnic Concert Series at the Afrikaanse Taalmonument in Paarl on Saturday 9 February.

The popular actor, singer and producer is best known for his roles in District 6: The Musical and Kat & the Kings. His reality programme, JOU SHOW met Emo, is one of the most popular shows on KykNET, currently in its third season.

The show begins at 20:00 in the Garden Theatre, a smaller version of the well-known Paarl Amphitheatre, located on the lawn right at the foot of the monument.

Visitors are welcome to bring their own wine and picnic baskets or they can order one from Volksmond Coffee Shop (tel. 021 863 2800 or volksmond@taalmuseum.co.za). Coffee, beer, wine and light refreshments will be for sale. The concert is held in aid of the Taalmonument's Reading Project for the Youth.

Tickets, at R100 for adults and R50 for children (free under 6 years), are pre-sold at the Taalmonument, as well as at the gate. Place is limited. Remember to bring a blanket or cushion and warm clothes. Safe parking is available and access is controlled. No dogs or fires are allowed. The concert will be cancelled if the weather is bad.

Upcoming events at the Taalmonument include: full-moon picnics (26 January, 23 February and 28 March), a Valentine's Picnic Concert with Loren Erasmus and Gift Gwe (14 February), a picnic concert with the Superstars Klopse troupe (9 March) and stargazing picnics (12 January, 16 February and 23 March).).
