

Take Note Reputation Management continues PR efforts for AHF

Take Note Managing director, Dionne Collett, recently announced that the AIDS Healthcare Foundation's (AHF) public relations efforts in South Africa are to continue being managed by Take Note Reputation Management for the second consecutive year.

The AIDS Healthcare Foundation's national profile has grown exponentially due to the media exposure Take Note have been able to secure for them. AHF has committed to a one year, four-country contract.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>