

NCR Consumer Credit Report out

The National Credit Regulator (NCR) has released its Consumer Credit Market Report, which is based on data submitted to it by registered credit providers. This edition covers credit market information from December 2010 to December 2011. It has also released its latest quarterly statistics for September - December 2011.

Last quarter results

The Acting CEO, Nomsa Motshegare, announced that the latest statistics indicate an 8.8% increase in new credit granted to consumers when compared to September 2011 but 28.82% more than a year ago. This increase was also due to seasonal factors.

The NCR has also noted a continued increase in unsecured personal loans of 24.69% when comparing periods ended September 2011 to December 2011. The proportion of new mortgages granted however, has rapidly declined from 51.88% in December 2007 to 27.24% in December 2011 while unsecured personal loans have grown from 7.81% to 24.58% for the same period.

The total value of new credit granted increased from R98.90 billion for the quarter ended September 2011 to R107.60 billion for the quarter ended December 2011.

The number of applications received for credit increased by 1.4 million from 8.31 million in September 2011 to 9.72 million in December 2011 an increase of 16.98% (an increase of 44.65% when compared to the same period last year).
