

Drakenstein honour women in tourism

The Drakenstein Municipality honoured women this past Women's Day when it hosted a 100 women to journey on a day trip through the region.

The themes of the day centred around the importance of tearing down barriers for women in the tourism industry and the role they played in sustainable growth for tourism.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>