

Where does one get TV Presenting, Advert and Voice Over Auditions?

Looking for Auditions...

I'm getting incredibly frustrated with the red tape In the South African entertainment industry. I have literally called every 'great' agent and they won't even give you the chance to so much as state your case... their books are 'full' they always say... or worse, that dreaded question 'Do you have a drama degree'??

No I don't have a drama degree, I studied journalism but I am talented, well spoken and would make an excellent presenter... that much I have never questioned! EVERYONE, and I mean EVERYONE who meets me tells me that I am wasting my talent but they don't seem to understand how incredibly hard it is to put your foot in!

Nonetheless, I won't give up... I am slowly making progress and I know that soon opportunity will meet talent! :-)

If you know any agents or contacts that can assist my cause, please e-mail me on njomizj@pinkberrynovel.co.za
