

BrightRock appoints new PR firm

After conducting a robust appointment process BrightRock has secured the services of Corporate Communications Consultants (Corpcom). Corpcom has over 25 years' experience in managing communications programmes for local and international companies with a focus on both the insurance and financial services industries.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>