

Sandton Convention Centre appoints Nasrin Hoosen as international sales manager

Nasrin Hoosen has been appointed by the Sandton Convention Centre's sales and marketing team as its new international sales manager.

Hoosen loves international travel and is a passionate follower of industry developments and trends, especially that of the MICE industry which has prompted her sales knowledge to thrive in the business tourism sector, bringing in business opportunities and economic growth.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>