

Become a Jobs.co.za agent

Jobs.co.za is recruiting for its own independent regional sales partners to extend the reach of its job portal and become more proactive in regions other than Gauteng. It is calling for recently retrenched, unemployed graduates or students, stay-at-home moms looking for flexibility while generating an income, or even those individuals who are just not finding satisfaction in their current mundane jobs. The expansion programme invites anyone residing within the target regions (Cape Town, Durban, Nelspruit and Bloemfontein) to apply www.jobs.co.za/job-seekers/jobs-in/recruiters/623/jobscoza.
