

KWV wins Gold at New York International Spirits Competition

The KWV has won an International Gold Medal for its 20-year-old potstill brandy and an International Silver Medal for its 15-year-old potstill brandy at the seventh annual New York International Spirits Competition (NYISC).

In the South African class, KWV won 'Brandy of the Year' in three categories: KWV 20-year-old potstill brandy was named '20 Year Brandy of the Year', KWV Laborie Alambic was named '5 Year Brandy of the Year' and KWV Imoya was named '3 Year Brandy of the Year'.

It adds this to its title of World's Best Brandy & Cognac Producer and World's Best Brandy for its KWV 15-Year-Old Alambic Potstill Brandy, won at the International Spirit Challenge earlier this year.
