

SACSC offers three expert sessions in three cities

The South African Council of Shopping Centres (SACSC) is sharing insight from leading economist, Dawie Roodt and political economy analyst and futurist Daniel Silke in three sessions around South Africa. The sessions are specifically tailored towards providing valuable insight to the retail and shopping centre sectors and associated industries.

Amanda Stops, CEO of SACSC

In Gauteng, Roodt will present at a breakfast event, sponsored, by Redefine Properties, on Tuesday 21 February 2017, from 7.30am to 11am at The Balalaika Hotel, Sandton. Roodt, who specialises in government finance and monetary policy, will provide a global economic overview and zoom in on the prevailing drivers and factors at play in South Africa's local economy.

Silke will explore whether South Africa will be consolidating or unravelling in 2017. At breakfast sessions in Durban and Cape Town he will delve into the prospects for the South African economy as well as its political stability in what is likely to be a testing year for leadership, the ANC and for growth.

The Cape Town event, sponsored by Old Mutual Property, will take place on Tuesday 21 February 2017, from 7.30am to 11am, at the Radisson Blu Hotel, Beach Road, Granger Bay. The Durban event, sponsored by JLR Services & Warehousing, will take place on Friday 24 February 2017, from 7.30am to 11am, at the Durban Country Club.

"By monitoring trends, exchanging ideas and sharing knowledge we support our industry growth, individual success and deliver value to our members," says Amanda Stops, CEO of SACSC.

Space is limited therefore booking is essential for all sessions and SACSC members benefit from discounted rates - to book email events@sacsc.org.za or call SACSC on + 27 (0) 10 003 0228.
