

Webber Wentzel appoints Craig Miller as tax practice director

Tax specialist, Craig Miller, has been appointed by the law firm, Webber Wentzel, as the new director for the firm's tax practice.

Miller previously served as a tax partner in the M&A tax advisory practice at PwC, as well as a tax partner at EY where he was head of EY's African transaction tax practice.

Miller is nominated as a leading tax advisor in South Africa by Expert Guides - a guide to the best lawyers from different practices across a range of areas and countries.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>