

Conference centre now open at at Victoria Falls

The new conference venue at Three Cities David Livingstone Safari Lodge & Spa is now open for business. The conference centre officially hosted its first conference this week.

The facility boasts internal space of 250m² complimented with WiFi and AV equipment and can accommodate 280 guests in cinema-style seating, 138 guests in convention seating and 192 guests for a banquet. The event space continues outside with 140m² of Bedouin-tented patio area seating 160 guests overlooking a waterhole already frequented by elephant, impala and a plethora of local birdlife.

There is an exclusive boardroom facility for up to 12 guests and an open-air Boma and amphitheatre venue will host traditional cuisine, experiences and performances by local talent supported by an on-site kitchen and a bar appropriately christened "The Watering Hole".

Victoria Falls Conference Centre features East African inspired design touches in a cool camel colour achieving an aesthetically pleasing and environmentally friendly exterior, all within a minutes' walking distance from the award winning Three Cities David Livingstone Safari Lodge & Spa.

Situated five kilometres from Zambia's tourism capital Livingstone and eight kilometres from the splendid Victoria Falls, this five-star safari lodge offers 72 tastefully decorated en-suite luxury rooms and five executive suites, all boasting spectacular views of the Zambezi River from private balconies.

For more, go to www.twice-dmc.com or www.thedavidlivingstone.com.