

Pepperclub Hotel & Spa named Africa's Leading City Hotel

At the 23rd annual World Travel Awards regional Africa and Indian Ocean Gala Ceremony held in Zanzibar, Cape Town's Pepperclub Hotel & Spa was named Africa's Leading City Hotel.

The World Travel Awards™ recognises and rewards excellence in all sectors of the global travel and tourism industry. All titles are awarded based on votes received from travellers and industry professionals.

With its prime position in the heart of Cape Town city centre, the hotel remains a favourite for many business and leisure travellers - both international and local - as they exploit its convenient, close proximity to the business district, and numerous tourism hotspots.
