

RIWHS and Le Morne Cultural Landscape sign twinning agreement

The Robben Island World Heritage Site and Le Morne Cultural Landscape in Mauritius recently signed a twinning agreement, in recognition of cultural diplomacy between the two countries. The agreement was sealed by the Robben Island Museum's council chairperson, Sibusiso Buthelezi, and Mauritian minister of sports and culture, Prithvirajsing Roopun.

The celebration took place at the Atlantic Imbizo, Clock Tower House at the V&A Waterfront and included performances by local group, Ilitha LeLanga Marimba Ensemble.
