City Lodge Group to accommodate SA Culinary Olympic squad

The City Lodge Hotel Group has taken on the role as the official accommodation partner for the South African Culinary Olympic squad. The National Culinary Olympic Squad is a division of the South African Chefs Association and will compete in the oldest global culinary competition in Stuttgart, Germany in February 2020.

The group will provide the squad with accommodation when gathering in the lead up to the competition. The squad is planned to gather once a month preparation.

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com