

Manufacturing Indaba 2015 gets Deloitte's support

Deloitte South Africa has announced its partnership as the knowledge partner to the second annual Manufacturing Indaba, at Emperors Palace, Ekurhuleni on 29-30 June 2015.

As the Knowledge Partner to the event, the company will provide intellectual capital, current insights and innovative trend information on South Africa's manufacturing industry through the provision of innovative content. The firm is actively involved in the growth and upliftment of the manufacturing industry across sectors.

The Manufacturing Indaba is aimed at providing the most up-to-date content relating to manufacturing in South Africa as well, as how manufacturers can grow and expand their businesses. The support of a leading global firm adds great value to a superb conference programme.

Additional partners to the Manufacturing Indaba include the City of Ekurhuleni as the host city and strategic partner, the Manufacturing Circle and the dti as strategic partners to promote localisation and the development of the manufacturing sector in SA.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>