"We are delighted with the diverse range of companies exhibiting at the first WTM Africa. The breadth and variety of tourism product on show encapsulates the vision of this inaugural event to promote Africa to the world and the world to Africa and to deliver the right business contacts in a fresh new environment. Visitors will find an assortment of products and services on the show floor as well as a number of exciting events, topical education sessions, industry insights and networking opportunities," says WTM Africa exhibition manager, Polly Magraw.
