10 Jun 2014

The inaugural Entrepreneurs Convention will be held at the CTICC on 12 June 2014. This event is designed to inspire entrepreneurs to help them grow and build their businesses for greatness. The target audience is entrepreneurs and business owners with established businesses who wish to tap into and learn from the experience of fellow entrepreneurs.

Apart from the ample networking time during breaks, lunch and a networking function, the delegates will be addressed by more than eight professional speakers and successful entrepreneurs during the day. These presentations are grouped under themes like purpose, vision, goals, entrepreneurial spirit and the entrepreneur's tool box.

The agenda includes presentations on courage, better business practices, leadership, your true role as entrepreneur, building successful teams, mastering your presence, mentorship, taking your business to the next level and champion thinking.

The convention promise to be a special treat for any entrepreneur and business owner and will add value to any business - truly a day where entrepreneurship will be celebrated.

Tickets are available at R1,950 per person and includes VAT, refreshments, lunch, networking function, delegate goodie bag, discount vouchers on entrepreneurial resources to value of at least R5000 and free parking. The networking event after the conference also allow for exhibitors who wish to showcase their products and services to business owners.

The event is supported by Wesgro and the Cape Chamber. Bookings can be made online at www.entrepreneursconvention.co.za or by calling the organiser CADEK Media on 021 854 4700.
