

Still time to enter Boss of the Year

The Boss of the Year 2011 awards, sponsored by MTN for the fourth year, closes for nominations on Wednesday, 15 June 2011. The new title bearer will be announced on National Bosses Day, which this year will be celebrated on Friday 14 October.

A key objective of the award is to pay tribute to leaders in the workplace who have the courage and foresight to identify and maintain direction and focus on guiding companies, departments and staff.

Eunice Maluleke, head of MTN SA Foundation, says: "We would like to play a leading role in acknowledging and celebrating leadership excellence in South Africa. Our role is to honour sound workplace leadership and to find role models for our country.

Other sponsors include Arthur Kaplan Jewellers, the Blue Train, die Kunshuis Clanwilliam, Europcar and Jaguar South Africa. Nomination forms are available from www.bossoftheyearaward.co.za.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>