

Litha Healthcare Group promotes literacy for Youth Day

The Litha Healthcare Group has shown its commitment to improving literacy during Youth Day month with the donation of 1 000 children's reading books to a number of hospitals in the KwaZulu Natal, Gauteng and Western Cape provinces. The hospitals that have received the donations include Chris Hani Baragwanath and Johannesburg General (Gauteng); Red Cross Children's Hospital; Groote Schuur and the Western Cape Neurological Rehabilitation Centre (Western Cape) and King George Hospital and Wentford Hospital (KwaZulu Natal)
