

Allan Gray and SARU appoints 4ward-design

Video conferencing and home automation specialist 4ward-design adds South African investment management company, Allan Gray and the South African Rugby Union (SARU) to its tally of deals signed this month.

Allan Gray appointed 4ward-design to assist with the installation of their video conferencing and audio-visual equipment in their new Johannesburg office. South African Rugby Union briefed 4ward-design to deliver a simplified yet high-tech installation in the boardroom, meeting rooms, canteen, CEO office, reception and technical room of their Cape Town Head Office.
