

Bokjol: SA's newest music festival

South Africa's newest music festival, Bokjol, will launch from 23 to 25 September, 2016, at the Magalies Retreat, 45 minutes from Joburg and Pretoria. It promises three crazy days of lekker local music, beer, braai and bacuzzis.

Bokjol will be no dop en tjop affair, it's bringing out the big guns in a celebration of all the things that make us South African: our music, our food, our culture, our language and our heritage.

Bokjol will host a mix of proudly South African artists. The line-up already includes over 30 artists, bands and DJs who will play across three stages ranging from rock, dance and electronic music (and a few in-between).
