

Lord of the Dance performs in Johannesburg and Cape Town

Michael Flatley's Lord of the Dance: Dangerous Games returns to Johannesburg and makes its first appearance in Cape Town in August 2017.

Lord of the Dance: Dangerous Games is a spectacular new staging of the traditional master piece. With all the precision and thrills of the original, Lord of the Dance: Dangerous Games features new staging, new costumes and choreography. The show features cutting edge technology including a giant Radiant flat screen that spans the width of the stage, special effects lighting, dancing robots and world champion acrobats.

With some of the world's most outstanding young performers directed by Michael Flatley and new music by composer Gerard Fahy, this latest iteration combines the best of tradition with all the excitement of new music and dance.

Promising reviews

This will be the first time the show will tour to Cape Town and will be back in Johannesburg due to popular demand since it's previous run in 2015 which received rave local reviews.

'Pure sensation – come with an open mind and expect the unexpected!' Stage & Screen

'Lord of the Dance : Dangerous Games at The Teatro, Monte Casino was an evening filled with fancy foot work, enthralling fast paced dance routines and a plethora of costume changes' Get It – Joburg North
