

Pizza & Wine Festival at Stellenbosch Vineyards

The inaugural Stellenbosch Vineyards Pizza & Wine Festival will be held on 12 and 13 March, 2016, and visitors will be able to enjoy a selection of wines paired with pizzas and live music.

A first of its kind in the Stellenbosch winelands, the festival will take place on the picturesque Welmoed Farm, home of Stellenbosch Vineyards, and will offer fun-filled activities for the kids as well as a variety of pizzas creatively prepared to tantalise the taste buds.

From gourmet to traditional, vegetarian to Banting and Flamenkuchen to calzones - the choice of pizzas will offer is the perfect culinary match to some of the Stellenbosch Vineyards wines on offer throughout the two-day event.

Oyster and bubbly bar

Explore, taste and savour the ultimate pedigree of wines in the Stellenbosch Vineyards signature range, the hand-crafted Welmoed heritage selection, the innovative Infusions range of wine-based refreshments and many more as you relax on the lawn under the trees or in the stylish tasting room.

You can also take a break from the pizza and wine, and indulge in the oyster and bubbly bar set under the thatched area in the middle of the Welmoed pond. The live entertainment completes what promises to be an unforgettable experience.

Tickets cost R120 per person and include entry, a tasting glass, tasting coupons and the live entertainment. Additional coupons can be purchased on the day. Book via www.webtickets.co.za
