

Goodluck, Crash Car Burn and The Kiffness headline at International Beer Day Music Festival

The International Beer Day Music Festival brings together friends, live music, and beer-in-hand at the Cradle Moon Lakeside Game Lodge, Muldersdrift on Saturday, 5 August 2017.

With a selection of over 50 different beers from 22 top brewers and live music from 11 great artists, the International Beer Day Music Festival is a place where beer and music unite. Giving everyone an opportunity to enjoy local and international beers, fused with music in a true reflection of gratitude and celebration.

What festival goers can expect

Festival goers will get to taste hops from Darling Brew, The Brew Bus (which will serve five Skippas, Eish Tea and Growler Brewing Co.), Copperlake, Leaky Tap Brewery, RIOT Beer, Dragon Brewing Co., Hazeldean Brewing Co., Brewhogs, Drifter Brewing Co., Soweto Gold, Red Rock Brewing Co., Garagista Beer Co., Erdinger, Salitos and some SAB favourites such as Fransen Street Brewery, Stella Artois and Corona.

The funkiest food trucks around with delicious offerings will also be available from Snorting Boar Smoker, The Knickerbocker Ice Cream Co., Pizza Stroller, The Gatsby Station, Al's Chuck Wagon and Coffee from Mobile Coffee Café.

Entertainment will be taken care of by some of the country's most popular artists, including SAMA winners Goodluck, Ross Jack, Crash Car Burn, The Kiffness (SAMA23 nominees), Monark, Keystate, Jaryd Smith, Sounds Intense, Laminin, B Trax and Deep Culture.
