

Jack Daniel's Sinatra evening

Jack Daniel's special new limited edition release, Sinatra Select, was unveiled at an intimate dinner at Maximilliens in Sandton on Wednesday 23 October.

Invited guests - a star-studded mix of beautiful people from Joburg's music, media and socialite scene - were treated to a dinner and whiskey pairing, while being entertained by two of the hottest new names in music right now, Nandi Mngoma and Vusi Nova. Invited guests were the first in South Africa to taste Sinatra Select, a special release from the Jack Daniel Distillery, crafted to honour the longtime friendship between Frank Sinatra and Jack Daniel's that spanned over half a century.
