London's number 1 Attraction for 2013 (as rated on Trip Advisor) has arrived in Cape Town with a bang at the iconic Old Biscuit Mill.

What is HintHunt?

Quite simply "Imagine Big Brother meets CSI in 19th Century London". This is a live escape game, we lock you and your team in a room. The team's goal is simple: solve the mysteries to escape... or not!

HintHunt provides the team players with a competitive, fun and unique experience, which is groundbreaking as a new unique 4D Live activity. The team consisting of between 3-6 people must work together and has 60 minutes to solve a number of puzzles that will ultimately lead them to escaping from the room. Or not!

Great for families and friends, or pit your wits against your corporate colleagues!

The nature of this game won't allow us to reveal too many details upfront, you simply have to try it for yourself to have a clear picture of what the challenge is all about.

Should the anticipation be too much, you are welcome to contact us directly or visit our website www.hinthunt.co.za where you can make use of our 'live' online booking system.

Rated Number 1 for Attractions in London and Paris on Trip Advisor.

We will look forward to welcoming you for an adrenaline-fueled hour!
