

The Cirque de la Symphonie back in Cape Town

The Cirque de la Symphonie is to return to Cape Town to perform at the GrandWest Grand Arena, on Saturday, 21 and Sunday, 22 June. 2014.

Cirque de la Symphonie brings together the magic of circus and the musical splendour of an orchestra in one show. Performing artists will include veterans of top circus productions around the world and will feature aerial flyers, acrobats, contortionists, dancers, jugglers, balancers and strongmen.

Each performer's act is professionally choreographed to classical music masterpieces and popular contemporary music, with maestro Theodore Kuchar and the Cape Town Philharmonic Orchestra in live performance.

Shows start at 7pm on Saturday and 3pm on Sunday. Tickets are available from Computicket between R200 and R350 each.
