

Cirque Éloize iD comes to Montecasino

Cirque Éloize's show "iD" will be coming to South Africa for the first time when it opens at the Teatro at Montecasino on Tuesday, 19 August, 2014. The show, which combines contemporary circus arts and urban dance, has announced that it is extending its run by a week and will now close on 14 September.

The modern circus transports audiences to a vibrant urban streetscape. The stage comes alive with the boundless energy of acrobats, break dancers, and contortionists, who perform against a kaleidoscope of video projections, building to a stunning finale on a one-of-a-kind video trampowall.

Based on the multidisciplinary talents of its artists, Cirque Éloize expresses its innovative nature through theatricality and humanity, and combines circus arts with music, dance and theatre in a path-breaking and original manner. The scene is set in the heart of a city, in a public space where people seek refuge and a chance to shed their anonymity; a place where identity is forged and individuality is expressed to a stimulating soundtrack created by composers Jean-Phi Goncalves (Beast) and Alex McMahon.

Multidisciplinary performers from around the world

The integration of multimedia gives this show a unique feel. Fourteen performers from 12 disciplines help create iD's entertaining and resolutely urban universe, in keeping with Cirque Éloize's tradition of using multidisciplinary performers from around the world.
