Special awards

Four special awards will be announced at the ceremony on Sunday, 21 March. They are the Rosalie van der Gucht Prize for New Directors; the Award for Innovation in Theatre that is awarded to an individual, company or organisation working onstage or behind the scenes that has delivered work of excellence and made a contribution to theatre and its development; the Special Lifetime Achievement Award that will go to an individual who has over many years made a significant contribution to theatre, on or off stage; and the popular Peoples' Choice Award, for which theatre fans vote online at www.capetheatre.co.za for their favourite 2009 production, with the deadline for voting being 15 March, 2010.

The Fleur du Cap Theatre Awards, under the auspices of Distell's Corporate Social Investment programme, will once again be a glamorous occasion where the stars of the stage mingle with the audience on the red carpet. Tickets cost R150 per person via Computicket and include canapes, Fleur du Cap wines and bubbly, with all funds raised through box office sales going towards the development of the performing arts in South Africa. For more information and to vote, go to www.capetheatre.co.za.
