The Compleat Golfer '5-Star Golf Experience Awards', which were put on hold last year, are back this year with Mercedes-Benz presenting the awards for the best golf club or estate. Golfer and the magazine's columnist, John Botha, will again chair the panel of judges, which for the first time will include industry specialists in addition to members of the magazine team. The winners will be announced at the gala dinner early in 2012.
