Booklet on perils of underage drinking distributed to Joburg school

The Industry Association for Responsible Alcohol Use (ARA) has distributed its sponsored Teenagers & Alcohol booklets to additional schools in the Johannesburg area to reinforce the message of the harmful consequences of underage drinking. The first drop was made to King David High School Victory Park and more booklets will be allocated to other schools throughout the year. For more, go to www.ara.co.za.

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com