

B.O.B to play at I Heart Joburg Music festival

Pop star B.O.B has been added to the line-up for the inaugural I Heart Joburg Music Festival to be held at Ellis Park, Joburg, on 6 September. He will appear alongside Jessie J, Fall Out Boy and Jason Derulo.

With hits Nothing On You (ft Bruno Mars), Airplanes (ft Hayley Williams) and, more recently, John Doe, B.O.B is no stranger to the music industry. He will be performing alongside fellow singer Jessie J. Their hit, Price Tag, from 2011 catapulted both artists into megastardom. Ticket sales will be open at 9am on Wednesday, 14 May from Computicket.

The inaugural, annual I Heart Joburg Music Festival is an uninterrupted 12-hour musical explosion dedicated to the beautiful city of Joburg. Festival-goers can expect an eclectic mix of six local and six international superstars across various genres.

The line-up consists of some of the biggest names on the international scene including Grammy Awards winners, MTV Europe Music Award winners and Billboard chart-topping artists.

Tickets cost R520 to R1185 from Computicket at 9am on 14 May.
