

More international artists announced for Synergy Live

Captain Hook, Atmos & Mindwave will be performing at at Synergy Live as part of the Sirius Sunday Electronic Music Experience; a nine-hour electronic music spectacle.

Currently charting at number one on Beatport, Captain Hook has become a household name amongst lovers of quality psy-progressive music. This new project by Reshef Harari has seen him travel to dance floors in the furthest corners of the globe, from Boom to Sun Festival, to Ozora, Soulvision and the Eclipse Festival. Known for delivering exhilarating and dynamic sets, Captain Hook will hook you with his phattest, punchiest basslines and electrified rhythms.

Captain Hook

Drawing influences from electronic and ambient rock music like JM Jarre and Pink Floyd, Atmos quickly formed a style that was to make him one of the most successful producers in hypnotic and atmospheric trance. He's released four albums, loads of singles and has had countless appearances on compilations.

Originally from Russia, Anton Maiko immigrated to Israel in 1991. He fell in love with electronic music when he was six years old listening to The Prodigy, Scooter and, later on, MFG and Astral Projection and Cosma. At 13, he started to play the keyboard, trusting his intuitions and teaching himself, while exploring new methods of composition. In 2009, he released his debut album 'Escape from Reality' as Mindwave and followed this up with 'Awaken' in 2010, 'Concept of Freedom' in 2012 and 'Insight' in 2013.
