

DJ Oliver Schories to play at Shimmy

German deep house DJ Oliver Schories is to play at Cape Town's Shimmy Beach Club on 13 February, 2016.

The Hamburg-based Schories is one of the most booked DJs and live acts today, and is among the latest wave of promising music producers with a penchant for deep and emotive techno to grace Shimmy's summer line-up. Schories will be joined by talented support acts including Anouka, a fellow German, as well as local favourites Pierre-Estienne, Floyd Lavine, Ian Skene, Ryan Murgatroyd, Brett Aitken, and Burn to Tape.

Tickets are available from strangeloving.nutickets.co.za/CT

Limited early-bird tickets are available for R100, after which prices rise to R150. Limited tickets will also be available at the door on the event day for R200. VIP tables are available to book. Email vip@shimmybeachclub.co.za to reserve your exclusive couch pocket for the event.
