

Get Lucky Summer introduces new concert series

Goodluck has announced the return of their annual summer residency, the Get Lucky Summer. The concert series will feature some of their favourite acts, including TIM ODV, The Kiffness, Matthew Mole, No Method, Nick Hamman and Majozi. This year, for the first time, will see the Garden Route's concert series extent to host event in both Knysna and Cape Town.

"Get Lucky has grown massively from our first shows three years ago in Plett and it feels only right that we take the Summer energy from these events, as well as the country's biggest and best live acts, to two of our other favourite holiday destinations", says Scott Kleinschmidt, event organiser.

In addition to three events at the Beacon Island Hotel in Plettenberg Bay, Knysna will get its first taste of Get Lucky Summer on the lawns outside WHET restaurant on Thesen Island, and Cape Town will experience its first Summer Series at the beautiful Hillcrest Quarry.

Get Lucky Summer also recently announced its first New Year's Eve concert to take place at the Robberg Rugby Club in Plett with GoodLuck, Mango Groove and Matthew Mole.

As is tradition, the event promises live music, breath-taking views, friends, family and a summer holiday vibe like no other in South Africa.
