

OppiKoppi to go online over Women's Day weekend

In light of the Covid-19 pandemic, OppiKoppi will be taking place online over the Women's Day weekend, 9 and 10 August 2020.

OppiKoppi 25 postponed until 2020

11 Apr 2019

This year sees OppiKoppi return on the 'Urban Sessions' platform on militia.computicket.com. OppiKoppi will bring Bittereinder, Bubbles, DJ Bob, Femi Koya, Focalistic, Hellcats, Jacques Moolman, Kenzhero, Luma, Stogie T, Urban Village to your home via livestream. Hosted by Catherine Grenfell with musically-driven content featuring Koppi stories and shared tunes; OppiKoppi Weekender will create new memories with these custodians of fine tunes.

OPPIKOPPI WEEKENDER
LIVESTREAM 9-10 AUG

BITTEREINDER, BUBBLES, DJ BOB, FEMI KOYA
FOCALISTIC, HELLCATS, JACQUES MOOLMAN
KENZHERO, LUMA, STOGIE T, URBAN VILLAGE
CATHERINE GRENFELL (HOST)

TICKETS: R140 (TWO DAYS)
AND R80 (PER DAY) AT
MILITIA.COMPUTICKET.COM

Logos: URBAN SESSIONS, SAVANNA, <18

In the words of the festival director: "We have seen the future. More music. More art. And a lot more love. This is what we do."

Tickets to join the online revelry are available at R140 for two-day access; and R80 for single-day access. The ticket proceeds will be going directly to the great acts that are playing and the technical team responsible for the online broadcast.

You can also check out the 'Pop-Up OppiKoppi Shopie' with OppiKoppi Festival Merchandise at Victoria Yards, 16 Viljoen St, Lorentzville, Johannesburg, 2094. The shop is open from 10am - 4pm daily. The online store is coming soon.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>