David Watkyns, a singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist from Cape Town, has released a new single. He holds a Bachelor of Music from the University of Cape Town in Jazz Studies.

Watkyns is best known for his performances with Arno Carstens and he is still a member of the Springbok Nude Girls.

His session playing and songwriting credits include Mike Rutherford (Genesis, Mike and the Mechanics), Jack Hardman (Good Boy), Zolani Mahola (Freshlyground), Judith Sephuma, Jimmy Dludlu, and upcoming Gabriela Diamond.

David has performed across Africa, Europe and Asia, including Isle of Wight Festival (UK), St Paul's Cathedral (UK), Oppikoppi (SA), Rocking the Daisies (SA), and winner of MELA Award for Contribution by Youth to South African Music Industry.

His music is influenced by Peter Gabriel, Chet Baker, Johnny Clegg, The 1975, New Radicals and Paul Simon.

Watkyn's music is story-driven with classic instrumentation, big trumpet solos, nostalgic synthesizers and lyrics of love, lust and loss.

His new single Education is out now - and I caught up with him last week...

■ The song you must do during every show?

Magic. It's what the people want, and I'm happy to play it again and again!

▣ Any funny moments on stage?

Too many! I love interacting with the bandmates and sharing the ups and downs of live shows. Gears not working, falling over cables, forgetting lyrics, changing lyrics, technical errors... all part of the wonderful fun journey.

People that share their art and believes without hesitation, censorship or fear.

▣ My style icon is...

Prince, Harry Styles and Frank Sinatra.

Content, comfort and creativity

■ On stage, I tend to...

Go flipping wild. Express every emotion I feel. Take risks. Connect. Give me all to the audience.

■ The best life lesson you have learned?

Live in the now, not the “what if”

■ What has been your favourite journey so far?

Joining forces with Arno Carstens and parenthood.

■ Do you do charity work, and if you do – what do you do?

I work with a lot of young songwriters and musicians that don't have access or knowledge to produce their own ideas. I look to empower their creativity and give them insight into how the industry works.
