

Celebrating 150 years of Indian culture

A big screen premiere of the documentary 'African Indian Odyssey' will be shown on Thursday, 18 November 2010, at the Dorothy Suskind Auditorium at Wits University in Johannesburg and in Durban on 24 November at the Supernova Theatre, NuMetro CineCentre, Suncoast. The film has been produced by Ochre Moving Pictures in collaboration with CISA (Centre for Indian Studies in Africa) at Wits University to celebrate and commemorate the 150th anniversary of the first Indian settlers in South Africa. It will also show on this Thursday at 8pm and midnight and this Friday at 8.30am, 12.30pm and 4.30pm on Saffron TV, DStv Channel 456.
